

How can we help prevent displacement of long-time residents and best address the lack of affordable housing in the Bay Area?

Which present-day transportation investments do you see providing the most benefits for existing and future Bay Area residents?